Wednesday November 8, 2006

4pm, 208 Garland Hall

The University of Alabama

Scott Stephens is a printmaker and Professor of Art at the University of Montevallo, where he has taught since 1983. His prints have been seen in over 100 exhibitions and are held in regional public collections as well as private and corporate collections nationally. Stephens' long term involvement with big prints has led to the creation of large format printmaking facilities at the University of Montevallo that feature a 44 x 84 inch Takach etching press.

Co-sponsored by the Department of Art, and the MFA in the Book Arts Program at the School of Library and Information Studies.
