

WORKSHOP DEADLINE EXTENDED TO MAY 1, 2008

Multicultural Journalism Workshop

MJW

July 11-19, 2008

Join us for the 25th Annual University of Alabama
Multicultural Journalism Workshop

Become a part of a quarter-century tradition!

The purpose of the workshop is to give high school students a lively experience that will let them know more about college life and a career in journalism broadly defined to include newspapers, magazines, photojournalism, broadcasting and online media.

Should I attend?

Yes, if you will be entering the 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th or first year of college in fall 2008 and are considering a career in journalism or related field.

How much will it cost me?

The workshop program, supplies, housing, meals and field trips are free. Transportation to and from Tuscaloosa is the student's responsibility. Just bring spending money.

How do I apply?

Send in this application along with ...

- An official transcript of grades and standardized test scores.
- A typed 250-word essay explaining your interest in journalism.
- Writing samples, preferably photocopies, of stories and articles. Unpublished manuscripts or broadcast scripts are also acceptable.
- A list of school and community activities and work experience or a resume containing this information.
- A recommendation letter from a teacher, guidance counselor or media professional.
